Attorney Kahn addressed the court and it bullds up the whole system.

Attorney Kahn addressed the court in mitigation of punishment, stating that the defendant came of a good family of this city. His father, now a purtial cripple, was a former United States official, and depended upon defendant, his only son, for support. It was a sad case. Young Barnett, he regretted to say, had already served a term of one year in the Utah penitentiary for a like offense. Unfortunately he was addicted to whisky, and that tanded him in this trouble.

Assistant District Attorney Richards stated that the defendant went to the St. Elmo hotel about midnight one Saturday, engaged a room and paid for it
